- 08:20-09:30 Transfer to Yu Garden
- 09:30-10:10 Visit of the Yu Garden and City God Temple
Yu Garden, also known as Yuyuan Garden (豫园), is the most celebrated classical Chinese Garden in Shanghai downtown area. It also enjoys the reputation of “the crown of beauty in Southeast China”, offering charming and pleasant views. Visiting Yu Garden is just like visiting the exquisite Humble Administrator’s Garden in Suzhou which listed as the UNESCO World Heritage Site. City God Temple (城隍庙) is a Taoist temple located in Yuyuan Tourist Mart, connecting to the Yu Garden. It was first built during the Yongle (永乐皇帝) era of the Ming Dynasty, with a history of 600 years old. If you have free time, you can have a look at what immortals are being worshipped at the temple. No admission fee is charged.
- 10:10-10:30 Visit of the Bund
The Bund is a mile-long stretch of waterfront promenade along the Huangpu River. To the west of this stretch stand 52 buildings of various architectural styles, including Gothic, baroque, and neoclassical styles. It is often referred to as “the museum of buildings”. You will have a better understanding of the century-long charm of this city.
- 10:30-11:00 Transfer to Shanghai Tower
- 11:00-11:30 Have a panoramic view on the observation deck of Shanghai Tower
Shanghai Tower is in Lujiazui Finance and Trade Zone of Pudong, with Shanghai World Financial Center to the east and Jin Mao Tower to the north. The tower ranks as China’s tallest building and second only to the world at large. The foot print takes up 30,368 square meters (about 326,878 square feet) with floor space of about 576,000 square meters (about 6,200,012 square feet), with 5 basement levels, 127 floors above ground and 5 podium floors.
